Playoffs This Month

Competition Keen In Minor League Baseball

With the Wheatbelt Babe Ruth and Little Leagues nearing schedule completion, the standings turned in show the Vulcan Babe Ruthers on top in their league, closely followed by Champion, while the Little League standing has Champion and Carmangay on top with two teams virtually tied in second spot. The calibre of ball played by these youngsters is improving with every game and there are certainly some future diamond stars being developed in these minor leagues.

In the Babe Ruth section games between Champion, Mossleigh and Vulcan have been very interesting low scoring affairs with scores of 3-2, 4-3 and 4-2 being registered with the winner being in doubt until the last pitch. Joe Boutland and Dave Collier have been carrying the pitching load for the top Vulcan aggregation with Barry Deal doing the catching.

In the Little League five teams are battling for four playoff berths. Champion and Carmangay are rolling along with five wins each for a good lead over Barons, and Vulcan Giants who are within a game of each other. The Vulcan Tigers seem to be the hard luck team, losing four close decisions in late innings. However they are a very young team and should be together for two or three years without losing many players by over-age.

Babe Ruth League Standing

Former Resident Laid To Rest

Mrs. Gladys Blair

The many friends throughout the Vulcan district of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Anderson, well-known old-timers here, were shocked and grieved to learn recently of the passing of their only daughter, Mrs. Gordon (Gladys) Blair of Ochre River, Man.

Gladys Anderson was born in Vulcan March 9, 1921 and grew up here, receiving her public and high school education in the Vulcan schools. She was graduated from the local high school in 1939. She then entered nurses' training school at the University of Alberta Hospital in Edmonton, graduating in 1943 with her R.N. degree. For a time she was District Health Nurse at Glendon and at Youngstown.

On March 28, 1946, she was married to Gordon Blair, in the Vulcan United Church in which she had been christened and which she attended regularly both as a child and young woman.

After her marriage she went, with her young husband, to make her home at Ochre River, Man., where she had continued to reside until her death, Wednesday, May 27.

Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Vulcan, she leaves to mourn her husband, four daughters and one son, all between the ages of 11 and one year. She was predeceased by her brother, Lt. Jack Anderson, on active service in Holland in 1944.

Funeral services were held from the Ochre River United Church and were attended by her father. Mrs. Anderson was unable to make the trip.

Visiting Guides Entertained

About 40 girls and their leaders gathered at the Russel Graham home northwest of Vulcan on Monday, June 1, for a pre-camp rally.

Captain Hayes welcomed a new camp group—the Champion Guides and their leaders Miss Fraser and Mrs. Jones. A camp session followed and the requirements discussed and revised for 1959. Some Second Class Guides passed fire-lighting and others worked on trail following.

The girls were then treated to a sumptuous supper of two favorite camp dishes—chili con carni and corn chowder. This was prepared by Captain Graham and the older Vulcan Guides.

Supper was followed by a wide stalking game. The girls then came together in their horseshoe formation and a rousing thanks was given to Vulcan by the visitors. Everyone sang Taps and then departed for home.

The camp is scheduled for July 13-21. A qualified staff will be in attendance — a commandant and co-commandant, a quarter - master, swimming instructors, a registered nurse and woodcraft instructors. A good week of fun and outdoor training is planned.

The Arrowwood Lions Club have improved the building and swimming pool and "Arrow Rock" Camp site is in top condition for the summer.

Saturday Dances For Chips & Twigs

From 10 to 12 p.m. the dances will be open to the public, with music supplied by an orchestra.

FIGHT AGAINST RAT INVASION CONTINUES

Dave Stelfox, Assistant Supervisor of Crop Protection and Pest Control, Alberta Department of Agriculture, (left) is shown examining an exterminated rat colony on a farm near the Saskatchewan-Alberta border.

More than 200,000 rats have been exterminated since 1951 along a 360 mile front of the Saskatchewan - Alberta border, through a year round rat control program conducted by the Alberta Department of Agriculture in co - operation with various municipal governments. The program is maintaining Alberta's status as Canada's only rat-free province.

The rat invasion from Saskatchewan began in 1950. The Pest Control Division of the Agriculture Department initiated a control program and, during 1952-53 called in professional exterminators to temporarily halt the invasion. Since 1950 the program has cost approximately $235,000 for a saving of over $4,000,000 damage to Albertans.

A specially trained corps of pest control officers regularly inspect farmsteads in suspected areas. In 1958, 637 farms of 3,774 inspected were found to be infested. The control program exterminated all but 52 colonies which were subsequently wiped out in a follow-up winter campaign.

The area of infestation occurs along a 20-mile wide strip stretching from Medicine Hat in the south to Cold Lake in the north. The westward thrust of the rat movement is felt most keenly at such points as Grande Centre, Onion Lake, Lloydminster, Provost, Alsask, Empress and Schuler.

Two poisons, Warfarin and Pival, are distributed by the government free of charge to farmers, municipalities and urban centres. Pest control officers employed by the Department of Agriculture direct the control program. Over 20,000 pounds of dry-mix and 10,000 quarts of water soluble bait were used to kill an estimated 58,000 rats last year.

The rat is commonly confused with the muskrat although the two animals differ in a number of respects. A rat is usually brown in color; about 16 inches in total length including a seven - inch rounded scaly tail, and weighs about 11 or 12 ounces. The muskrat is much larger with a slightly flattened tail. It also has feathered or "webbed" feet which a rat does not have.

Lions Club Guest Speaker

Urges Formation Local Recreational Council

Sidney C. Moore, Regional Consultant of the Community Recreational Bureau, Department of Economic Affairs, was the guest speaker at the recent meeting of the Vulcan Lions Club.

Mr. Moore spoke on the needs of a community for a balanced recreation program for old and young. He outlined the methods for proving such a need and spoke of the help his department gives in establishing Recreational Councils.

The highlight of the evening was a film depicting just how a community goes about discovering its needs and potential for an organized recreation program. It dealt with a small town that seemed dead until the citizens aroused themselves and formed a recreational council with a hired director. It closed with a view of the same town filled with happy, busy people.

Mr. Moore concluded the evening by answering questions on the advantages of such a program and the hope that Vulcan would take advantage of the help the Recreation Bureau can provide.

Services Held For Alexander Fontaine

Alexander Fontaine, 74, died Saturday in Bassano after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Fontaine was born in Pefferlaw, Ont., and settled in the Milo district in 1918, where he farmed.

He moved to Gleichen in 1947 and was a member of the Gleichen Anglican Church.

His first wife predeceased him in 1947. Surviving are his wife, Betty of Gleichen, and daughter, Mrs. Doug (Muriel) Smith of Vulcan. Funeral services were held at St. Andrew Anglican Church, Gleichen, Tuesday at 2 p.m., with Rev. K. M. Collison officiating. Interment was in the Vulcan cemetery. Vulcan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Les Manard, Allan Quennell, Ted Froggett, Walter James, Rupert Hunter and Thomas Marsh.

SERVICE BOARD NOTES

By H. S. Burns

The Agricultural Service Boards of the County of Newell, County of Vulcan and the Municipal District of Wheatland are sponsoring a gigantic Field Day at Gleichen on the Blackfoot reserve, Monday, June 15, or Tuesday, June 16, as an alternative date in the event that the weather is unfavorable for spraying of the first mentioned date.

This big demonstration will be known as "operation killer," and the objective is to bring to the residents of the reserve as well as others, the great benefits to be derived from chemical spraying.

There will be three aircraft present and these machines will be busy doing aerial spraying of crops and slough land, where weeds are becoming a menace. Also on hand will be two field sprayers loaned for the day from a firm in Calgary, with tractors and men loaned from machinery firms in Gleichen.

The Department of Agriculture as well as the Indian Agency are behind this project and preparations have been underway for the past several months. The spraying services and chemicals are being donated for the day's work, and plans have been completed so that the day's operations can be run off with a minimum of delay. With the editor's kind permission we would like to give credit through these columns after the show is over, to the various firms who co-operated to its success.

The main centre of operations will be one mile south and one mile east of Gleichen and will commence at 10 a.m. Everyone is welcome and it is hoped and expected that farmers will be there from far and near, as this event will be receiving wide publicity through the radio and the press.

June 15, is the day set and the events will be run off if the weather is at all favorable.

Canada's pulp exports to the United States currently are in excess of $200,000,000 a year.

ATA Local Plans Annual Meeting

Owing to inclement weather the regular meeting of the Vulcan local ATA, scheduled to be held at Milo, was held instead in the Vulcan High School, May 27.

Tentative plans were made for the annual meeting to be held on Sept. 30, following a banquet. Election of officers will be held at this time rather than the usual procedure of holding it at the fall convention.

Following this banquet, when guests will be teachers of the County, their friends and the school committee, a program will take the form of a welcome to the new teachers.

Inquisitive Bureaucrats

Public reaction to a new set of questions planned for the 1961 census will become clearer in a short time. Initial indications are that the government is getting a little too "nosey" in its nose-count.

No longer is a census executed for the exclusive purpose of obtaining an accurate population figure. Census takers are being authorized to check on such matters as the total household income, the value of the dwelling occupied, and the fertility of the housewife. There are other questions of a personal nature, but these three are good examples of latest bureaucratic meddling in our daily lives. For spicy information like this about their neighbors, the "older biddies" in small towns across the country will be making applications by the thousands for a job as census taker.

The government itself seems to be a little hesitant about asking questions of such a private nature. Accordingly, it will conduct a trial run on two test cities this year to assay public reaction. It may be necessary to re-phrase any questions that cause offence, our civil servants explain patronizingly.

They should be explaining what useful purpose is served by extending a simple head count into a lengthy series of individual questions that can hardly be classified under a "census" heading. As a people, we have been conditioned to accept more state interference, and no doubt most of us will be docile in answering all questions at census time like obedient children. A few hardy souls, it is to be hoped, will have other ideas.

Community Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Lomond Community Club was held at the home of Mrs. Tim Ost on Thursday afternoon, June 4. Sixteen members answered the roll call with a penny for each year married.

The treasurer's report was given and accepted. New business consisted of planning a shower for Miss Beverly Benson (bride elect) to be held in the Lomond Community Hall on Friday evening, June 19. A motion was made to donate $10 to the Cubs and Scouts. A float for the parade on Sports Day was discussed and it was decided to have an entry. Winner of the nickel draw was Phyllis Huff.

An interesting contest followed. High prize was won by Margaret Ost with the consolation prize going to Marion Root. The next meeting will be held at the home of Janet Skeith in the evening. Roll call will be a donation of used clothing for the Salvation Army.

Letters to the Editor

To Editor of The Advocate,
Dear Sir,

As a resident of Vulcan for 40 years past and Councillor in the Municipal District of Harmony, and as a defeated candidate in the election of 1944, I wish at this time through the medium of your paper to make a few remarks which may be of interest in view of the forthcoming election.

To all who remember the beginnings of Social Credit in this province, with the extravagant promises which were made to the people of Alberta for many years, I would submit the Social Credit theories are now on the wane. We do not hear any mention made of $25 a month (in their most optimistic moments they spoke of $75 a month and more) nor do we hear the phrase "fountain pen money" which was so common some years ago. And what has happened to taxes which were to be lowered?

None of these so-called Social Credit theories were ever put to practical use. They were simply not workable but instead they have now adopted the orthodox theories prevailing and attempted to have people believe they are Social Credit innovations.

Before voting I would ask that everyone consider these points.

I would like to thank those who supported me in 1944, especially in view of the many promises of better things to come which were made to them by the Social Credit candidates at that time, and in particular I would like to thank those who gave me a majority in my home polls during that election.

Yours truly,
J. D. Hagerman.

To Editor of The Advocate,
Dear Sir,

We have received the Vulcan Advocate for several years and have appreciated it as a source of information for what's doing in the area. In the May 21 issue, your editorial, "Those Booze Dollars," says, "Dollars spent on liquor and dollars spent on schools are the same dollars." That is debatable.

Who pays for the extra police protection that is necessary due to alcoholic consumption; or the costs of extra jail space and more beds in hospitals, both active and chronic, directly attributable to the use of alcohol? Then there are costs which cannot be measured in dollars — the misery in homes where the real needs of the family go unmet as the income goes down the alcohol drain, the anguished hearts of those attending a loved one's funeral prematurely because some driver on the highway was "under the influence." The booze tax dollar does not begin to pay its own way, much less pay for certain beneficial institutions.

Sincerely yours,
Willard McDaniel

To Editor of The Advocate,
Dear Sir;

About two years ago I saw a car dump a mother cat and two kitten out on the road between our place and our neighbors.

About two weeks later the children found them, very thin, tired, hungry and scared. They must have had dogs after them as one of the kittens was injured and about a year later she became ill and we had to do away with her.

Two days ago my husband was working along the highway when he saw a truck stop, dump a half grown pup out and drive away. It must have been a very faithful animal as it remained at the corner for two days with no food or water.

Last evening the children and I went up and got him. His gratitude to us has been shown by his very deep affection. We have three other dogs but we could not leave him there to starve or be run over.

People who leave dumb animals to fend for themselves are certainly not being very humane. It seems to me that there should be a law making this a criminal offence.

—Mrs. Annabel Parslow.

MOSSLEIGH

The Mossleigh Community Club held their monthly meeting on Saturday evening with a good attendance. The club is catering for the gun shoot this weekend. Further plans were made for the Sports Day which is coming up soon. No cards were played as everybody was too tired, but coffee and cakes were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Piel, Sr., accompanied Mrs. L. Piehl to Bow City one day last week to attend a shower.

A very large crowd of relatives and friends attended a wedding dance for Mr. and Mrs. Gale Tharle (nee Patsy Laycraft) on Friday evening in the Mossleigh Hall. Gale and Patsy were married earlier in the day in High River and held their dance here.

The weather has been very hot and windy, the fields are looking green—whether it is grain or wild oats it remains to be seen. A good rain would be welcome before the Sports Day.

Ball games were played all week but Mossleigh were not favored with a win at any one, except on Sunday when the seniors played Milo here and won 15 to 3 without playing their ninth inning.

Blind-Creek Women's Association

The Blind-Creek Women's Association were guests at the manse in Carseland last Thursday afternoon for their June meeting. A fairly good attendance was present. Mrs. J. Leslie lead the devotional period with "What Happens When We Pray For Others," and Mrs. H. Leslie and Mrs. G. Scott sang, "Beautiful Garden of Prayer."

There wasn't much business to deal with, the treasurer reported that the WA netted about $100 catering at Pinkerton's sale. There will be no meeting in July. After the meeting the ladies visited and were served a dainty lunch by Mrs. M. Scott and Mrs. E. Robinson.

About one hundred pounds of used clothing were shipped to the overseas relief fund from the WA and two boxes were delivered to the Salvation Army depot in High River.

4-H Beef Club

The 4-H Club held their last meeting for the term at the home of Murray Leslie Wednesday evening with a good attendance. K. Walker, D.A., was present, also Robt. Lausen who placed the calves for a judging contest.

The boys plan a dance early in July. Allan Hurl clipped the head and tail of a calf and Clark and Wayne Christie finished dressing the calf so the younger members would know how to prepare their entry for the show. Murray Leslie then showed how to show the entry. All members took part in the judging contest.

Lunch was then served by Murray Leslie and Gordon Dawson. The show and sale will be held in High River this year.

MAJORVILLE

Friends will be sorry to learn that Jimmie Dew was a patient for the past week in Bassano Hospital. Jim had an attack of kidney stones but is coming along fine and expected to be home this weekend.

Mrs. Sandy Henry spent a few day in Calgary during the weekend owing to the illness of her mother who is a patient in the General Hospital in Calgary. At last report Mrs. Greaves was in somewhat improved condition. Wishes for a speedy recovery are sent to her.

Alex Hagg accompanied by his mother was a visitor to Vulcan and Nanton during the weekend in Vulcan. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hagg.

Clarence Umscheid, Jack Shield, Alf Heather and Miles Clemmons went to the Highwood foothills for a few days fishing this week. They caught enough to have a few meals while in the foothills but report it was a bit colder than at home. Some snow is still in evidence. Jack does not claim to be a fisherman, so he is camp cook and sums the outing thus, "A few fellows get together and go to the mountains for a rest, then some danged fool takes along a fishing pole and spoils it all," never the less all report a good trip, even Jack.

Gordie Vooys, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Vooys was a patient in Bassano Hospital this week where he had his tonsils and adenoids removed. Gordie got along fine and expects to be back at school Monday.

Hot weather of the past week really started crops growing and many fields now covered with green growth. Summerfallow is now underway and this year dandelions are again proving they could be a stubborn nuisance. Gardens are also making headway. High winds have been hard on some bedding out plants but it has been typical Alberta weather. Rain would be welcome any time.

Mrs. Alf Heather went to Vulcan on Thursday and brought Mrs. Roy Hostetler, her daughter-in-law, with her new son home from hospital. Debbie and Bruce of Lomond had stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heather while their mother was in hospital.

Mrs. Vi Williams of Gleichen was a recent guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Papp.

Milo-Queenstown F.W.U.A.

The May meeting of the Milo-Queenstown FWUA was held at the home of Mrs. Chester Thompson with 14 members and two visitors present. The secretary, Mrs. Gilbert Vooys, read the news flashes and other correspondence. She also read a bulletin on "Farm Safety" which was discussed later.

It was reported that Clifford Beckner, Johnnie Monner and Darrel Northcott would be sponsored jointly by the FUA and FWUA locals to attend farm young peoples' week at Edmonton in June. The coming district convention to be held in High River on Saturday, June 20, was discussed and it was hoped a number of members would be able to attend.

If your family likes Strawberry Jam they'll enjoy Strawberry Jelly too. Here's the successful way to make it.

STRAWBERRY JELLY

3¾ cups juice (about 2½ quarts ripe berries)
7½ cups (3¾ lbs.) sugar
¼ cup strained lemon juice
1 bottle Certo fruit pectin

To prepare juice. Crush thoroughly about 2½ quarts fully ripe berries. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 3¾ cups juice and ¼ cup lemon juice into a very large saucepan.

To make jelly. To the measured juice in saucepan, add 7½ cups sugar and mix well. Place over high heat and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. At once stir in Certo. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim off foam with metal spoon and pour quickly into glasses. Cover at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin. Makes about 11 medium glasses.

Quite a few new homemakers have asked me about pectin. "What is it?" they say. Pectin is the jelling substance found in all fruits in varying amounts. Certo is pectin extracted from fruits rich in this natural substance, then refined, concentrated and performance-controlled. Certainly, nothing artificial or 'chemical' about it! When you use Certo and follow the tested Certo recipes, your jam and jelly always sets perfectly.

If your church group or women's club is interested in homemade jam and jelly, I have a Certo film I'd be happy to loan you. No charge. No obligation. It's called "Jelly and Jam Session" and runs about 12 minutes. It's 16 mm, has sound, and is in full color. If you'd like to borrow it, please write me — Frances Barton, General Foods Kitchens, 44 Eglinton Ave. W., Toronto.

Watch for my column! I'll be back with more recipes, and meantime — if you've any jam or jelly problems, please write me, and I'll do my best to help you.

READ MATTHEW 5:33-35

That name I just heard is delightfully sweet!
Jesus is Christ and Him you must meet;
Now He is meeting poor sinners
in grace,
He knocks at your heart. Oh,
give Him a place!
He hears you blaspheme; but oh, if you knew
How much He loves sinners,
how much He loves you,
You would fall at His feet and adoringly sing,
Jesus! my Saviour! my Lord!
and my King!
'Twas for this that He died on Calvary's tree,
That sinners the chief, might
from judgement be free;
He's now up in glory— A Man
on God's throne,
But He's coming again — it may be quite soon.
He left us this message, while
He is above,
A message of mercy — a message of love:
Tell sinners I love them — tell
Adam's whole race,
That this is the day of My patience and grace, Yeamore — go, beseech —
beseech them for Me, Beseech by My blood, by my death on the tree,
It cleanses from sin and fits them to be
At once and forever in glory with Me.

BLASTED EDITOR BLASTS BACK

The editor of a small town weekly was severely critized because of an error appearing in his paper, and in the next issue he had this to say:

"Yes, we know there were some errors in last week's paper. We will further agree that there were some errors in the issue of the week before, but before bawling us out too unmercifully, we want to call your attention to these facts:

"In an ordinary newspaper column there are 10,000 letters, and there are seven possible wrong positions for each letter, making 70,000 chances to make errors and several million chances for transpositions. There are 48 columns in this paper, so you can readily see the chances for mistakes. Did you know that in the sentence "to be or not to be," by transpositions alone, 2,759,022 errors can be made? Now arn't you sorry you got mad about that little mistake last week?"

The Pondering Citizen

After much thought, the Pondering Citizen had decided who would receive his vote on June 18. He was telling his wife about his decision.

"You know, Honey, we need a man who will really know the folks of this area. One who will try to get things done for us. He's got to be a man we will get to see once in a while, and he's got to know the constituency from one end to the other.

"I think we should pick a man who has seen how other places live, and how other places get good government. He should be a man we know we can trust, and I think he should have a record of success in his business or calling. He should be liked and respected by his friends and neighbors, and perhaps mostly by those he does business with.

"I think we need a man with a good education, who can begin to understand our education problems; a man who has his roots in our community and has children to provide for. Yet, he should know more than just the local picture.

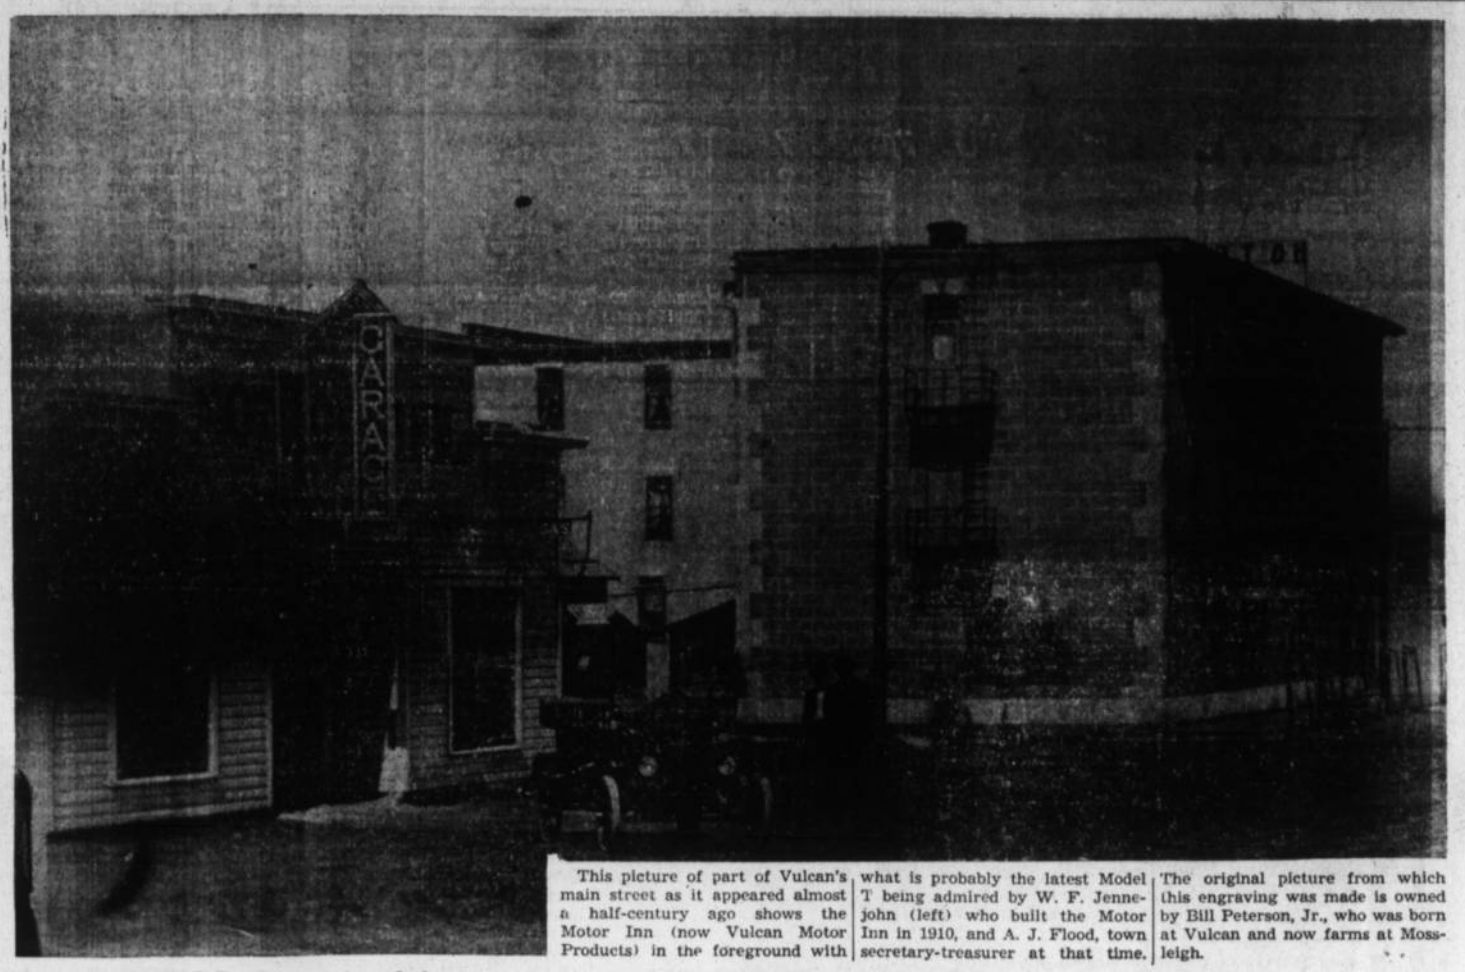

"Well, Honey, I've picked Dr. Bernie Tonken. We all know him and he knows us as people. We get to see him fairly often, not just at election time. He's sure made a success out of his business, and he had to be well educated as a starter. Everyone we know likes and respects him. He seems a sure go-getter for the constituency if they are smart enough to elect him. I think he fits all the things I said about the kind of man we want and need.

"He knows the community better than most natives. He is in the Vulcan Lions Club, so he is interested in making his community a better place. He always seems to be busy, but you know what people say, "If you want to get things done, hire a busy man."

"To top it all, I think every government, even one that has been in power and done the things our present government have, should get a shake-up once in a while. They get too smug and self-satisfied. We need a change around here, so I'm voting for Bernie."

The Pondering Citizen's wife didn't say anything, but from her nods and smiles you could tell that she agreed with all he had said. Friends, don't you agree too?

PLEDGED BY CAM KIRBY

"In Manitoba the entire cost of delivering electricity to farms is borne by the provincial Government. In Saskatchewan a large proportion is borne by the provincial Government. A Progressive Conservative Government in Alberta will bear 40 per cent of the capital cost of hooking up those farms that do not now have electric power. This will not be less than $400 or more than $600 per farm. Those that now have power will receive a capital rebate spread over four years, starting next year. It will be not less than $400 or more than $600 per farm."

Drivers of the cars were Mrs. Raycraft, Mrs. Jim Stier and Charlie Suitor. They first visited the Readers Gardens, then General Bakeries and Swifts. After lunch in the Central Park, the children went through the Library. The Herald Building was next visited and the Fish Hatcheries at Calgary Breweries. Fire Destroys Barn and Feed

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wray experienced the loss of their barn and some feed by a fire at their farm on Saturday. Mr. Wray was cleaning out a near-by garage and was burning the garbage when a gust of wind carried the burning material to a stack of bales piled against the barn. Immediately the fire was out of control and the barn and contents were burned to the ground.

The assistance of a number of neighbors prevented the burning of other buildings though it was feared for some time that the house would also catch fire. A strong wind was blowing, carrying burning shingles to the roof of the house but ample water from the farm well prevented any out-burst of flames. Fire destroyed the power for some time and assistance was given by a water truck from the near-by highway construction crew. The power was restored later.

Fortunately, there was no stock in the barn. Loss was confined to the feed contents of the barn, the building itself and the pile of bales stacked outside.

Of Many Things

By Ambrose Hills

ARE YOU BLUE?

Anyone in the audience feeling blue? Well, Mister, I can tell you how to cheer up, fast!

Simply get up off whatever you are sitting on and do something fine for somebody else. Try it — go on! Go and give your wife a kiss, or pat one of your youngsters on the head, and make yourself smile.

Everybody gets blue. Everybody can get over it. Abe Lincoln tells us that the average man is about as happy as he makes up his mind to be. So make up your mind, buddy!

When I get blue I lecture myself. I have a few 3x5 filing cards on which I type out things I like to remember. One of the items is a cheerer-upper, written long, long ago by some fellow called Marco Morrow. I read it this morning when I got out of bed tired and gloomy, with a head cold and too much work ahead of me — work which I could have had done if I'd been less lazy. I'd like to pass those words along to you. Cut them out and paste them in your hat.

"It is a glorious privilege to live, to know, to act, to listen, to behold, to love. To look up at the blue summer sky; to see the sun sink slowly beyond the line of the horizon; to watch the worlds come twinkling into view, first one by one, and then myriads that no man can count, and lo! the universe is white with them; and you and I are here."

Cynics may point out that here in Winnipeg, Man., where I'm writing this, the temperature is 22 below this morning; the sun is getting up, not sinking, the sky is grey with clouds, and the smoke from the Central Heat plants is pushed straight south by the icy wind. Sure, that's so. But the frost is lovely on our windows, the den where I write is warm enough, the smell of percolating coffee reaches me, the rent is paid for this month, and I'm alive.

Best of all, I'm the white-haired boy around home. This morning at breakfast, I said to my wife, "Boy, you're looking lovely this morning." She was, too, but she nearly dropped dead with surprise when I said so. Giggled, too. And suspiciously asked me what deviltry I was up to. I didn't tell her. I'm not going to tell you, either!

OFF WITH THE HORNS

Dehorning is an annual chore which thousands of cattlemen have worked into a routine with their other activities on ranch or farm. These are the people who realize the wisdom of doing a job when it is most easily accomplished with the least risk. Some use caustic paste at birth; others use a knife and caustic pencil, lifting the horn button out with the knife and cauterizing with the pencil; still others use a dehorning tube or a calf size dehorner. All have one thing in common, says W. C. Gordon, Live Stock Supervisor, Alberta Department of Agriculture. "The calf is not over four months of age before he is dehorned and therefore it is safer for the operator and easier on the calf."

Unfortunately there are still many who do not do this job when it should be done, he says. As a result calves go into winter with the horns still on. The weather gets colder; calves are subjected to major feed changes; they are moved about and exposed to shipping fever. Dehorning now becomes an added risk. These producers forget that a man buying feeders penalizes the producer for the horns on his calves. The feeder has only two choices, both bad. He can dehorn at some risk of serious set back or he will have to put up with horned cattle in his feed lot and pay a penalty for horns when he markets. He therefore bids accordingly.

Dehorning is the responsibility of the original producer and he should regard it as a means of making his product more saleable.

New Rod Weeder
Plus Extra Ruggedness for OLIVER Chisel Plow

There's a new bonus in field cultivation and summer fallowing with a rod-weeder attachment for an Oliver chisel plow. The soil pulverizes better and you kill more weeds.

The new rod-weeder attachment operates automatically when you drop the chisels, regardless of the type of lift or size of wheel-type chisel plow you have. The rod is powered by strong, low-friction, roller-type chains—no transmission or gears to wear out.

Now Oliver's popular chisel plow has new ruggedness, too. The entire frame is a lightweight, rigid box. Each double-spring clamp has new length for added strength and flexibility.

Give us a call and we'll arrange a demonstration of the new Oliver chisel plow—both with and without the rod-weeder attachment.

We would like to offer our prices as a buying guide, when you are ready to purchase an Oliver Chisel Plow—

Library Association

The Champion Library Association held a general meeting last Thursday evening. The addition to the building was discussed. Approximately $400 has been realized since last November toward the addition to the building and the proposed plumbing. This sum has been raised by means of bake sales, apron sales and generous donations of various local organizations.

The purchase of "Canadiana," an all Canadian set of Encyclopedia which with every conceivable subject that is strictly Canadian, was discussed. The Village of Champion, for example, is described in one of the volumes, giving the origin of the name, capacity of its grain elevators, etc.; this is one of the topics which would be of interest to only a relatively small group of people, and then it deals with the Indians of Canada; it described these in good detail, with names of nations, reserves and bands, their customs, etc.

A beautiful set of window drapes have been donated to the Library. Since the five Library windows are very large they have always presented an expensive problem. These attractive drapes are a welcome gift. Mrs. Vaughn has volunteered to line the drapes.

Mrs. Dow served a sumptuous picnic supper, buffet style, at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be held in September.

Babe Ruth Baseball

Last week the local nine played two games, both of which they came out victors. On Tuesday, June 2, the locals travelled to Mossleigh to play a regular scheduled game. Despite a thrilling performance displayed by the Mossleigh hurler, J. Ellis, Champion came up with a very close 3-2 victory. In gaining the victory, the locals collected only three safe blows, all in the first inning. From the first inning on, there was not a single Champion batsman able to reach first base safely, as Ellis retired 18 men in a row, 15 by way of strikeouts. It was a very effective and dramatic performance by the right-hander. His control was absolutely flawless as he failed to issue one free pass to first base.

It was a close shave for the locals as those three big runs in the first inning proved to be the difference. Mossleigh loaded the bases with two out in the bottom of the seventh and Schneider, pitching in relief for the locals, walked in their second run. He then struck out the final batter to preserve the victory for the starter, Degenstein.

As mentioned above, Degenstein started for the winners and went four full innings giving up one run on two hits. He walked five of the opposition batters. Schneider came on in the fifth and finished up. He allowed one run, but gave up no hits. He walked five men and hit one batter. Ellis pitched the full seven innings in absorbing the loss. He allowed three runs, on only three hits. He came close to pitching a perfect game for the seven innings that are played in Babe Ruth Baseball which is a feat that every pitcher dreams about.

In hitting, through there wasn't very much of it, for Champion it was Degenstein, Rhodes and Bjornson who picked up the three Champion safe hits. Collecting the two Mossleigh singles were G. Beagle and Cooke.

On Friday, June 5, Champion played the Carmangay Babe Ruthers in Carmangay. The locals came home victorious by virtue of a 15-7 triumph. This was the sixth victory against one defeat for the local nine this year. They are currently tied for top spot in the league with Vulcan who is sporting an identical record. They will have three games next week, rounding out the schedule on Friday, June 12. The playoffs will commence on Tuesday, June 16.

Pitching for Champion were Schneider, who started and went four complete innings and Vaage who came on in the fifth inning to finish up. The victory went to Schneider. For Carmangay, Minty started, but was relieved in the sixth by Roe. Roe didn't officially for having pitched any part of an inning, as he came in with one out and allowed three consecutive safe hits to opposition batters. He then gave way to Minty who came on to wind up the game and take the loss.

In the hitting department for the locals it was Bjornson leading with two hits followed by Jordan, Vaage, Roger Smith, Staehr and Keenan with one hit each. For Carmangay it was R. Roe, Minty and Plourd who managed the three safe hits off the two Champion pitchers.

Donald A. McNiven

To the Electors,

Little Bow Constituency

As you know, the date of the election, June 18, is fast approaching.

I have tried to call on as many of the electors as possible since I received the Liberal nomination but know I will not be able to see everyone before voting day. I trust you will understand, and that you will vote as a supporter of the only farmer on the Little Bow ballot.

I believe my experience on the Vulcan County Council, Vulcan Municipal Hospital Board, the Foothills Health Unit and as a member of the F.U.A., will be a big help to me in conducting the business of government when I am chosen to represent you in the Alberta Legislature.

I do not profess to be a politician but I do believe we can do with less politics and more down-to-earth responsible government.

If you think a farmer can best represent your interests in the Alberta Legislature then I would welcome your vote and support on June 18.

DONALD A. McNIVEN,
Liberal Candidate,
Little Bow Constituency.
